THE 1946 TRAIL SALINA HIGH SCHOOL

PUBLISHED BY THE SENIOR CLASS

Dedication

To Miss Katherine Gemmill who for more than 30 years taught Salina High juniors and seniors an appreciation and understanding of American and English literature, the staff takes pleasure in dedicating the 1946 Trail. With her background of scholarly preparation for her work, supplemented by many travel experiences which she shared as she taught, Miss Gemmill gave knowledge and inspiration not only in literary fields, but she taught many of the principles of living that helped to mold the characters of her pupils who worked under her leadership in Room 16 where seriousness and laughter were well mingled throughout the years. Many graduates also have happy memories of working with her on "The Trail", "The Habit", and "The Salina High News", when she served as sponsor of those publications. May she find pleasure in reviewing this year's record of events through this yearbook dedicated to her in appreciation and in recognition of her many years of loyal service and outstanding leadership.

MISS KATHERINE GEMMILL

They start to school ---- the future bright
They await with much elation ---
The football games and basketball
And Prom ---- then graduation!

The Girl Reserves at Washington as junior Y. W. C. A. members have proven themselves very worthy of their title. They have worked in co-operation with the Red Cross, Community Chest, Y. W. C. A., American Legion, Y. M. C. A., Hi Y, and have given aid to many not only in the school, but in the community also. They contributed much to the clothing drives and other drives in which they were asked to participate.

The cabinet and officers as leaders have given to the club many benefiting ideas and programs which will be used as the basis for programs and parties in the coming years. They have worked with the girls not only as a group but individually. The programs have been so planned that each member of the club is given the opportunity to participate in some way. In this way each girl has to work with other girls and learn to co-operate and work in this Christian manner which Girl Reserves signifies.

The success of the Lincoln Girl Reserves, which is sponsored by Miss Kathleen O'Donnell, Miss Iva Zimmerman, and Miss Evelyn Sharp, is due to the enthusiasm, attitude, and participation of the girls. The regular weekly programs held every Wednesday were religious programs, quiz programs, one act plays, student talent, music, and talks by guest speakers.

An outstanding program of the Lincoln Girl Reserves was the Christmas Vesper Service. This lovely service was held in the Lincoln Auditorium the Sunday before Christmas. The music and devotional program was provided by the Lincoln Girls Glee Club under the direction of Mr. Ryberg.

As a means of raising money for the club, besides the membership dues, candy and popcorn were sold at the home football games. Among the service activities included the annual Christmas and Thanksgiving donation of canned goods, donations to the Y. W. C. A. World Fellowship Fund.

Lincoln Hi-Y kept a lively interest in their club this year, by having varied programs. The speakers of many professions, and the student participation was highly responsible for their success.

One of the most outstanding features of Lincoln Hi-Y was a Youth Movement Assembly, which carried throughout the school and community, the clubs theme "High Standards of Christian Character." The club also made a contribution to the "March of Dimes."

The Hi-Y members took their turns at selling candy bars and pop corn at the football games, and also selling schedule pencils for both football and basketball. All told the Hi-Y had a fine and prosperous year with the interest and participation of every member.

This year's Washington Hi-Y club under the direction of the cabinet and Emice Dyck sponsor, entered into many fields of activities. Outstanding among the year's events were the vocational programs in which many business leaders from the city were brought in to talk about their occupations.

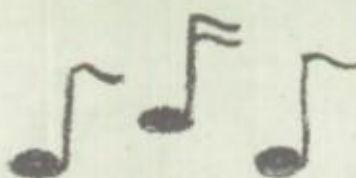

Social get togethers were held throughout the year, as well as open houses held at the Y. M. C. A. in which the facilities of the Y were turned over to the Hi-Y:

To replenish the clubs treasury, the Hi-Yers handled the program sales for the State Class A basketball tournament and likewise throughout the year used their best persuasive manner in selling football and basketball pencils. The essential factor behind the club's success was the willing spirit of co-operation among the boys, without which any club could not function.

2,540 miles covered, attendance at two speech clinics, and entrees in nine tournaments is the record achieved by this year's debate squad, which was made up of sophomores, juniors and seniors.

Under the guidance of Jim Kershner, who spent his first year in the Salina school system this year, the debaters established a record of no small means. To start the season out right, Salina reached the semi-finals to take third in the Topeka tournament. Following up, Salina took first both in individual teams and as a school at the Russell tournament and at McPherson ranked second. In the C.K.L. contest, second place went to Salina, and in the district tournament Salina also took second. Because of the high ranking in the district tournament, Salina took its place as one of the six top teams in the state to compete in the state finals, held at Lawrence, Kansas, where Salina came out in a tie for third.

The question for the year was one of timely interest, "Resolved: That every able bodied male citizen in the U. S. should have one year of full time military training before attaining the age of 24." Congress was discussing the issue, and new evidence and material came out all during the season, keeping the debaters busy getting arguments for and against all the new issues.

The first team of debaters was composed of Phyllis Lou Johnson, Kathryn Johnson, Rowena Ross, Melvin Clingan, Jack Howard, and John Weckel. These debaters attended the maximum limit of five tournaments, plus the C. K. L. district, and state tournaments, winning 71% of their debates.

★ QUEEN MILDRED ★

In an impressive ceremony, beautiful Mildred Henry was crowned queen of the Eighth Annual Homecoming, during the half of the Chapman-Salina football game, October 26th.

Queen Mildred and her lovely attendants, Sally Sue Woodward and Georgann Eyler escorted by Marshall Faith, President of the Washington Student Council, Ellis Norton and Jack Vanier, were driven to Maroon Field in a shining black convertible.

Presiding over the ceremony, Marshall greeted the returning grads and introduced Queen Mildred and her attendants, who were chosen by the students of Washington High. He then placed the crown of white chrysanthemums on the queen's head and she reigned victoriously over the game which the Maroons won 46-0.

He was a member of the 1945 State Scholarship Team placing first in constitution. Jack was a member of the National Junior Honor Society as a sophomore and of the National Honor Society as a senior.

REPRESENTATIVE GIRL

Peggy Baker chosen from among the senior girls as Representative Girl for '46 is a girl truly deserving this honor. Elected by the senior class and the Washington faculty, Peggy lives up to the requirements of comradeship, achievement, cooperation, dependability, and high ideals.

Peggy has been very active throughout her high school years. As secretary of the freshman class and as a member of the student council as a freshman and junior she has proved her leadership in the class. She has been a member of the Girl Reserves Cabinet every year and was elected President of Washington G. R. as a senior. Peggy was a member of the cast of "Spring Green" as a junior. In her senior year she was elected to the National Honor Society.

An enthusiastic sports fan, Peggy was a cheerleader in her junior and senior years. Her pleasing personality and dependable leadership make Peggy truly representative of the class of 1946.

HARRY HAMRELL

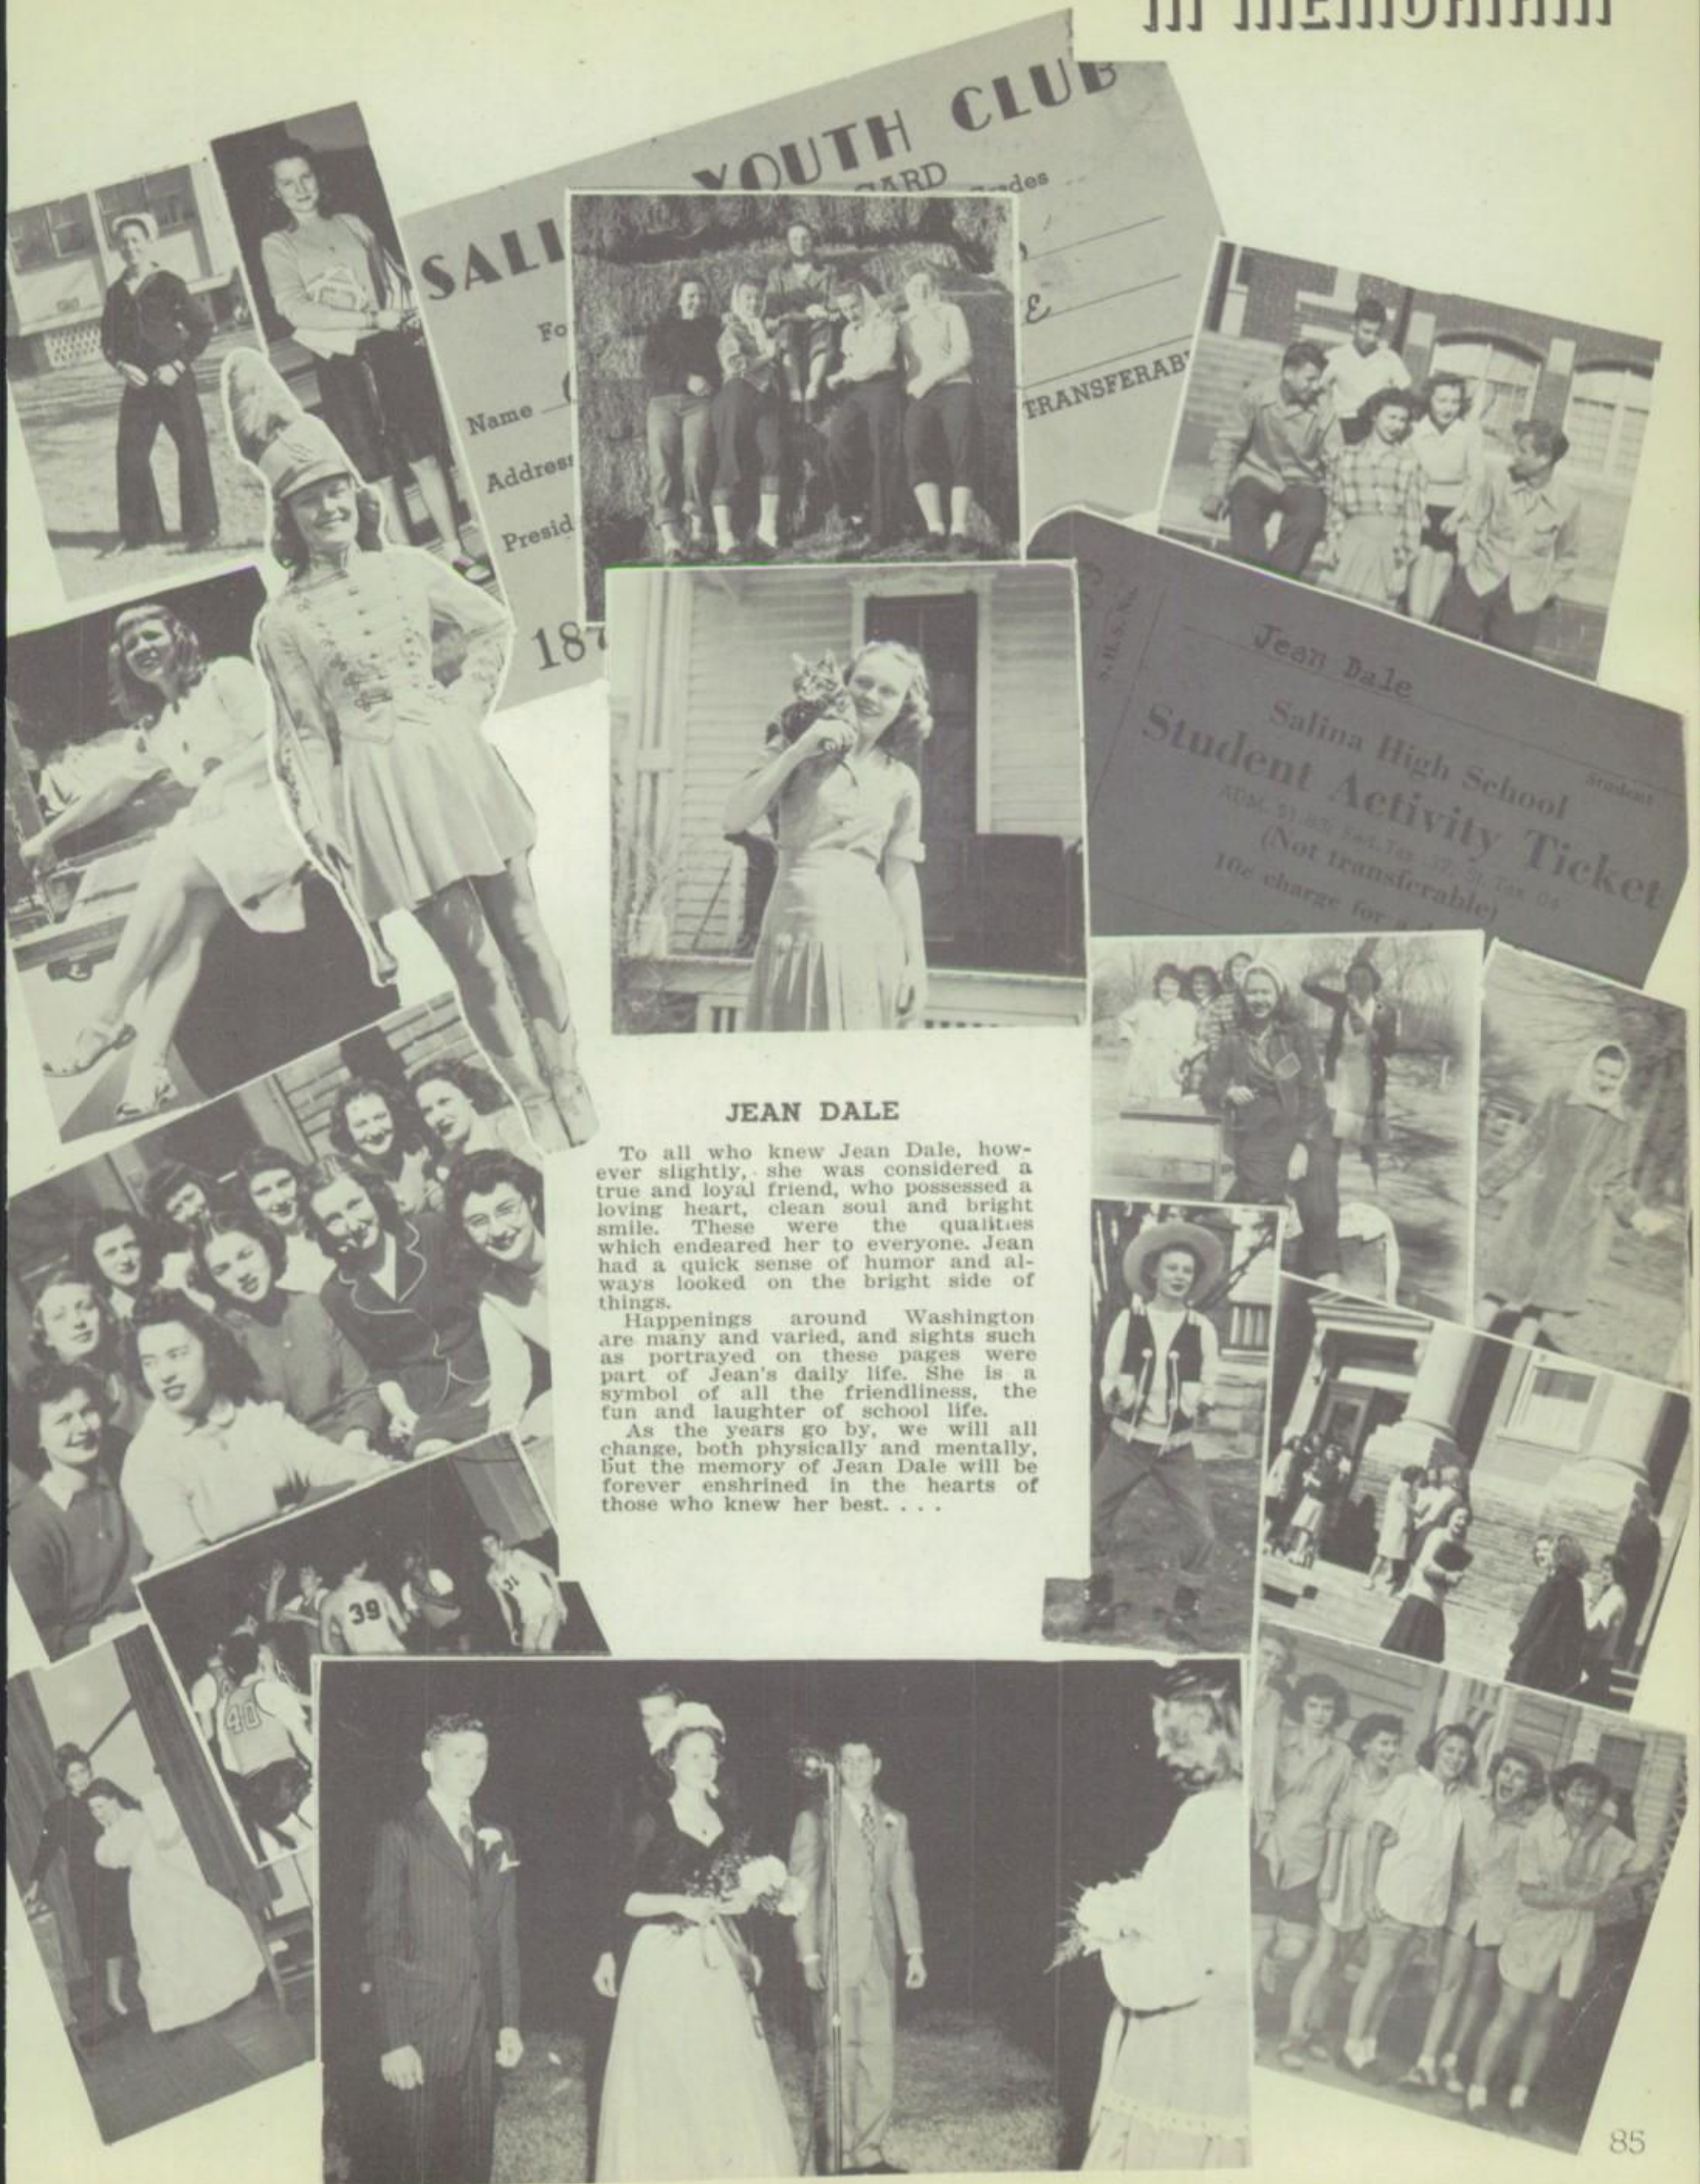

Harry Hamrell was well known and will be well remembered by S. H. S. students. He was a real friend and possessed qualities which won him many friends, even in the few short years he was in our student body.

He participated in several sports, not for any personal gain but just for the fun of living. Harry would have been in the center of such groups as these pages show; for he crowded as much as he could into each day: that was his philosophy—living each day; to him we pay the tribute of having had the courage to live a full life, even though short in years.

Although he is gone, he will not be soon forgotten. It is natural for us to wish that he could still be here, but as that is impossible—we say with all of his friends—Farewell to Harry . . .

IN MEMORIAM

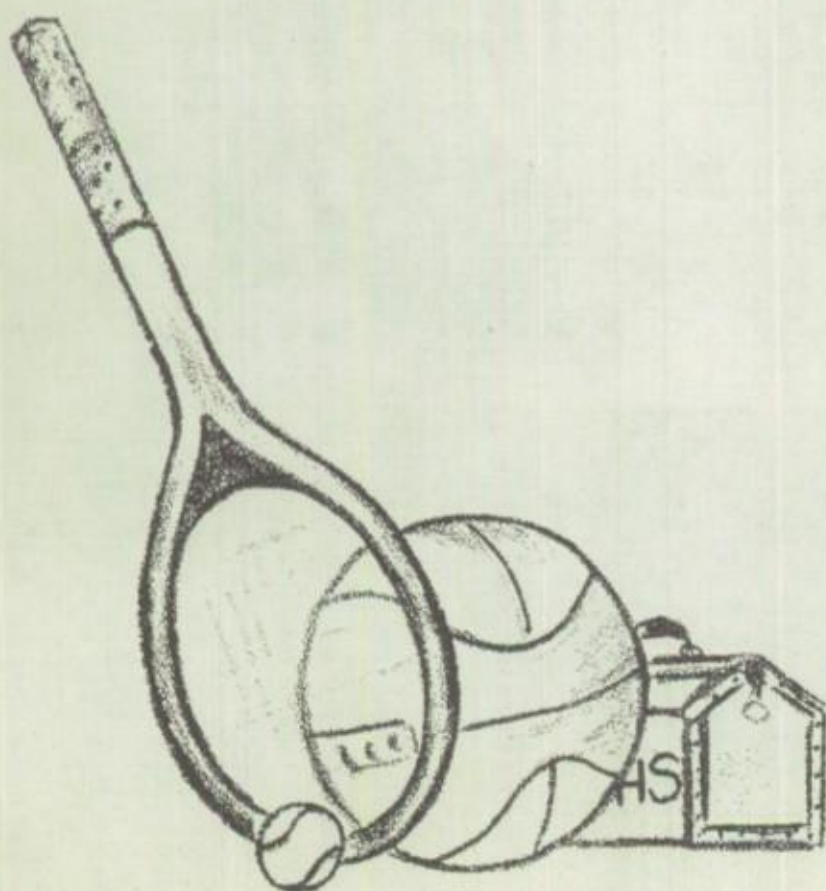

JEAN DALE

To all who knew Jean Dale, however slightly, she was considered a true and loyal friend, who possessed a loving heart, clean soul and bright smile. These were the qualities which endeared her to everyone. Jean had a quick sense of humor and always looked on the bright side of things.

Happenings around Washington are many and varied, and sights such as portrayed on these pages were part of Jean's daily life. She is a symbol of all the friendliness, the fun and laughter of school life.

As the years go by, we will all change, both physically and mentally, but the memory of Jean Dale will be forever enshrined in the hearts of those who knew her best. . . .

The Letterman's Club in its second year at SHS has served the school in many ways. The club sponsored several beneficial projects, they sold tickets to the "B" football game with Solomon to the three high schools and netted 225 dollars which was given to help pay the hospital bill of a football player who had broken his leg in practice. Also they were in charge of keeping the identification scoreboard to date. Some future projects discussed by the group include erecting a trophy case at Lincoln High School and also sodding the football, practice field at the Salina High stadium. Members of Letterman's Club include all athletes of SHS who have lettered in Football, Basketball, Track, Tennis, Golf and Wrestling.

REMEMBER WHEN

We were seventh graders then
Oh so long ago!
The strips to assembly were supreme
And U-E's and Louie's Duet a scream.
Every day P.B. to third floor would go,
Whether to see M.F. (?), not to get a drink we know.
Jack Howard upon his notebook had I.B.F. inscribed,
MY, my what Father Time hides!

Life in Lincoln was certainly different,
Remember that frightening freshman initiation
Then serving at Prom
That rings the gong!

LINCOLN STARS

We continue along our journey of memories,
Until we arrive at our last stopping place,
There were so many things to do
The plays and games and parties too.
Our basketball team how they won the state,
And then that all important date
For the event of the year.

It seems as if we've just begun
And now we must end the fun
Guess we Seniors should leave a will
For the rest of the studes who will climb that long, long hill.

To these poor studes we leave behind
We leave you the thought of all the good times,
We leave to you our history notes
That will come in handy
Just in case you have E. M. Smith or Andy
Now as the class of '47 comes along
We wish you success and know
That you'll fill our places and soon belong
To the senior class of S.H.S.

CLASS PROFILE OF '46

Once while reading my history text,
I was wondering who would be next
To sit in the chairs where we bunked
And all so gallantly flunked.
I wonder if years gone by
At dear old Washington Hi
Had sported such ambitious studes
As the class of '46 includes.
And I wondered, if after we pass
Just what would become of our class—
Now I see in my own mind's eye
What lies in the by and by
First, I see a man big and burly
It's Orville with his little bride, Shirley.
They're setting up housekeeping now
With five little chicks and a cow.
And Katherine and John, to boot
Are preparing to follow suit.
The girl voted "Nation's most wholesome"
Is our one and only Joan Ohlson.
While the title "most unlikely to bore us"
Is supported by screen-star, Fred Norris.
Georgann now makes her debut
In a dance that is shockingly new.
Her assistant, whom she swings by the ear,
Is the courageous Jerry Vanier.
To Hogan, a bouquet of flowers,
For her modeling with John Robert Powers.
The heavyweight championship goes
To Greiner who's up on his toes.
And Stewart has finally confided,
That to be a bachelor is what he's decided.
The best-selling book is McClanathan's conception.
Of "How to Catch a Man in One Easy Lesson."

The Quality Line

While whizzing around every coib,
Is New York's speed-demon, McLeod.
The corporation for mowing your lawn,
Is the thriving business of Ruthie Baughan.
The ballet has gained something new,
As Mary Ann Levin makes her debut.
Look out or she's liable to biff us,
I mean lady wrestler, Doris Griffis.
Jimmy Nyberg has turned symphonic,
Playing tuba in the Philharmonic.
Ethel Barrymore's place has been taken,
By Miss Smith whose class is forsaken.
Lebow's world-wide lectures afford,
"How to harmonize a dischord."
The actor that all women adore,
Is "man of the world" Charlie Moore.
The saleswoman who knows how to sell,
Is the fuller-brush gal, Iva Belle.
The town's loveliest samplers are made,
By Dee Dee, who is still an old-maid.
One act that Broadway will clap,
Is Howard and Lemon's duo tap.
The latest in opera singers,
Is our cute baritone, Norman Wenger.
Baker gives up her job as a teacher
To head down the aisle with a preacher.
While Jack Howard gets in some messes,
With Phyllis Lou in "Battle of the Sexes."
And as for my future, I see
A starving poet I'll probably be.
But leave us not tary so long,
And come to the end of this song.
So now I will get to the point—
Whenever our class leaves this joint,
You'll see, what you already knew,
The class of '46 come "smilin' through."

ODE TO WASHINGTON

To many studes in years gone by
It's offered shelter, knowledge, fun,
But now it's "worn out," and "no good,"
So new school plans have been begun.

For 38 years this grand old place
For opportunity has stood
And through its doors the students pass
And make their grades, both bad and good.

Knowledge is sought (and sometimes gained)
Within its ancient wall,
In spite of all restrictions,
A good time is had by all.

The faculty and students
May always come and go—
But Washington will carry on Until replaced, we know.

Strange footsteps echo down the hall,
We bid so long to every pal,
It's the end of the beginning, starting now.
